

CA Kent Section Winter Warmer Talk Marine Mammals and their interaction with sailing vessels

This event is open to MSBA Members

On Thursday 14th December at 20.00 Claire Pasquier Olcott RVN will talk about the origins of marine mammals and some of their characteristics and habits, both near our shores and further afield. This informative presentation will discuss the interaction between Orca and sailing vessels, the threats that marine mammals face, what we can do to help and how to report our sightings.

Registration for this event is via Eventbrite at a cost of £3.00 pp and needs to be pre-booked as places are limited.

Please follow this link to book: [\[BOOK VENUE\]](#)

The venue is The Dog and Bear Hotel, The Square Lenham, ME17 2PG, with the talk commencing at 20.00.

If you wish to eat beforehand in the restaurant please call on 01622 858219 to reserve a table together with your menu choice (<https://www.dogandbearlenham.co.uk/menus>) and time meal required.

This helps the staff to manage numbers eating at similar times.
